Madrid is an amazing city with a storied history that spans nearly a millennium. With incredible shopping, some of the world's most important museums, and a lively theater scene, Madrid's attractions will entertain you from morning 'til night—and even after that. The city is notorious for its hard-charging nightlife. In between, pack your days with a stroll through parks, colorful markets, and perhaps even take in an event at the cultural heritage of bullfighting. Along with an Egyptian temple within the city limits, you will many things to do and fall in love with this Spanish capital.

The port city of Valencia lies on Spain's southeastern coast and is known for huge choice of things to see and do from its historic city center to its Arts and Sciences with futuristic structures, and its peculiar museums. Valencia is also known as the birthplace of paella, beautiful sunny weather, and fantastic beaches.

Hotel Balneario Las Arenas in Valencia is located in a privileged beachfront setting looking out over the Mediterranean Sea, yet only a few minutes' walk from the city center.
